

Free Speech Demanded by Republicans

Free Assembly Must Be Guaranteed, but no Advocacy of violent Overthrow of Government Will Be Permitted; Care and Remembrance of World War Is Also Promised.

CONTINUED FROM PRECEDING PAGE

WOMEN IN INDUSTRY

Special study. We commend the special study of the problems of employment which make necessary for the permanent establishment of the women's bureau in the United States department of labor to serve as a source of information to the states and to congress.

The principle of equal pay for equal service should be applied throughout all branches of the federal government in which women are employed.

Federal aid for vocational training should take into consideration the special aptitude and needs of women workers.

We demand federal legislation to limit the hours of employment of women engaged in intensive industry, the product of which enters into interstate commerce.

HOUSING

The housing shortage has not only compelled careful study of ways of stimulating building, but it has brought into relief the unsatisfactory character of the housing accommodations of large numbers of the inhabitants of our cities.

A nation of home owners is the best guaranty of the maintenance of those principles of liberty and law and order upon which our government is founded. Both national and state governments should encourage in all proper ways the acquiring of homes by our citizens. The United States government should make available the valuable information on housing and town planning collected during the war. This information should be kept up to date and made currently available.

HAWAII

For Hawaii we recommend: Federal assistance in Americanizing and educating their greatly disproportionate foreign population; home rule; and the rehabilitation of the Hawaiian race.

FOREIGN RELATIONS—MEXICO

The ineffective policy of the present administration in Mexican matters has been largely responsible for the continued loss of American lives in that country and upon our border; for the enormous loss of American and foreign property; for the lowering of American standards of morality and social relations with Mexicans; and for the bringing of American ideals of justice and national honor and political integrity into contempt and ridicule in Mexico and throughout the world.

The policy of wordy, futile, written protests against the acts of American officials, explained the following day by the president himself as being meaningless and not intended to be considered seriously or enforced, has but added in degree to that contempt and has earned for us sneers and jeers of Mexican bandits and added insult upon insult against our national honor and dignity.

Foreign Policy.

The foreign policy of the administration has been founded upon no principle and directed by no definite conception of our nation's rights and obligations. It has been humiliating to Americans and irritating to other nations with the result that after a period of unexampled sacrifice, our motives are suspected, our moral inefficiency impaired and our government stands discredited and friendless among the nations of the world.

We favor a liberal and generous foreign policy founded upon definite moral and political principles, characterized by a clear understanding of, and firm adherence to, our own rights and unfailing respect for the rights of others. We should afford full and adequate protection to the American citizen and should require a proper respect for the American flag, but we should be careful to manifest a just regard for the rights of other nations. A scrupulous observance of our international engagements when lawfully assumed is essential to our own honor and self-respect and the respect of other nations. Subject to a due regard for our international obligations, we should leave our country free to develop its civilization along the lines most conducive to the happiness and welfare of the people and to cast its influence on the side of justice and right should occasion require.

Mandate For Armenia.

We condemn President Wilson for asking congress to request to empower him to accept a mandate for Armenia. The acceptance of such mandate would throw the United States into a very macabre of European quarrels. According to the estimate of the Harbord commission, organized by authority of President Wilson, we would be called upon to send 50,000 American boys to police Armenia and to expend $275,000,000 in five years. This estimate is made upon basis that we would have only roving bands to fight but in case of a serious trouble with the Turks or with Russia, a force exceeding 200,000 would be necessary.

No more striking illustration can be found of President Wilson's disregard of the lives of American boys or American interests.

We deeply sympathize with the people of Armenia and stand ready to help them in all proper ways but the republican party will oppose now and hereafter the acceptance of a mandate for any country in Europe or Asia.

League of Nations.

The republican party stands for agreement among the nations to preserve the peace of the world. We believe that such an international association must be based upon international justice and must provide methods which shall maintain the rule of public right by development of consent of law and the decision of impartial courts and which shall secure instant and general international conference whenever peace shall be threatened by political action, so that the nations pledged to do but in case of a serious trouble with the Turks or with Russia, a force exceeding 200,000 would be necessary.

No more striking illustration can be found of President Wilson's disregard of the lives of American boys or American interests.

We deeply sympathize with the people of Armenia and stand ready to help them in all proper ways but the republican party will oppose now and hereafter the acceptance of a mandate for any country in Europe or Asia.

League of Nations.

The republican party stands for agreement among the nations to preserve the peace of the world. We believe that such an international association must be based upon international justice and must provide methods which shall maintain the rule of public right by development of consent of law and the decision of impartial courts and which shall secure instant and general international conference whenever peace shall be threatened by political action, so that the nations pledged to do but in case of a serious trouble with the Turks or with Russia, a force exceeding 200,000 would be necessary.

No more striking illustration can be found of President Wilson's disregard of the lives of American boys or American interests.

We deeply sympathize with the people of Armenia and stand ready to help them in all proper ways but the republican party will oppose now and hereafter the acceptance of a mandate for any country in Europe or Asia.

League of Nations.

The republican party stands for agreement among the nations to preserve the peace of the world. We believe that such an international association must be based upon international justice and must provide methods which shall maintain the rule of public right by development of consent of law and the decision of impartial courts and which shall secure in-conduct and honor their courage and fidelity and we pledge the coming republican administration to such agreement with the other nations of the world as shall meet the full duty of America to civilization and humanity in accordance with American ideals and without surrendering the right of the American people to exercise its judgment and its power in favor of justice and peace.

Point to Record

Pointing to its history and relying upon its fundamental principles, we declare that the republican party has the generous courage and constructive ability to end executive usurpation and restore constitutional government; to fulfil our world obligations without sacrificing our national independence; to raise the national standard of education, health and general welfare; to re-establish a peace time administration and to substitute economy and efficiency for extravagance and chaos; to restore and maintain the national credit; to reform unequal and burdensome taxes; to free business from arbitrary and unnecessary official control; to suppress disloyalty without denial of justice; to repeat the arrogant challenge of any class; and to maintain a government for all of the people and finally to ally unrest, suspicion and strife and to secure co-operation of all citizens in the solution of the common problems of the day, to the end that our country, happy and prosperous, proud of its past, sure of its future.

The unfortunate insistence of the president upon having his own way without any regard to the opinion of a majority of the senate, which shares with him in the treaty making power, and the president's demand that the treaty should be ratified without any modification, created a situation in which senators were required to vote upon their consciences and their oaths according to their judgment upon the treaty as it was presented, or submit to the demands of a dictator in a matter where the authority under the constitution were theirs and not his.

The senators performed their duty faithfully. We approve their conduct and honor their courage and fidelity and we pledge the coming republican administration to such agreement with the other nations of the world as shall meet the full duty of America to civilization and humanity in accordance with American ideals and without surrendering the right of the American people to exercise its judgment and its power in favor of justice and peace.

Point to Record

Pointing to its history and relying upon its fundamental principles, we declare that the republican party has the generous courage and constructive ability to end executive usurpation and restore constitutional government; to fulfil our world obligations without sacrificing our national independence; to raise the national standard of education, health and general welfare; to re-establish a peace time administration and to substitute economy and efficiency for extravagance and chaos; to restore and maintain the national credit; to reform unequal and burdensome taxes; to free business from arbitrary and unnecessary official control; to suppress disloyalty without denial of justice; to repeat the arrogant challenge of any class; and to maintain a government for all of the people and finally to ally unrest, suspicion and strife and to secure co-operation of all citizens in the solution of the com-

The unfortunate insistence of the president upon having his own way without any regard to the opinion of a majority of the senate, which shares with him in the treaty making power, and the president's demand that the treaty should be ratified without any modification, created a situation in which senators were required to vote upon their consciences and their oaths according to their judgment upon the treaty as it was presented, or submit to the demands of a dictator in a matter where the authority under the constitution were theirs and not his.

The senators performed their duty faithfully. We approve their

Visitors to New York

are cordially invited to view our exhibit of Diamonds, Sapphires, Pearls and Emeralds in Artistic Platinum Settings

E. M. GATTLE & CO.

PLATINUMSMITHS - JEWELERS

630 FIFTH AVENUE

Opposite St. Patrick's Cathedral

WANTED

Hauling Contract

for any length of time by owner of three well equipped motor trucks; careful drivers; first class service. For particulars address Box F-921 World, or call in de- North Yorktown.

HORSE AUCTION

The Richfield Stock Farm company of Central Kansas are disposing of all their farm holdnigs and have a surplus of horses and mares that we will offer at

PUBLIC AUCTION

At Sapulpa, Oklahoma
On Saturday, June 12

Among those which will be sold will be found some of the very best animals that grow, ranging in ages from 4 to 8 years, and in sizes from 1,300 to 1,800 pounds. All are well broke.

These animals consist of matched teams such as dapple grays, blacks, bays and roans. The geldings are a fine assortment and are suitable for public work, or where heavy hauling is needed. There is also in the lot three High Class Combination Horses, Gaited.

We were encouraged to bring this stock here by one of your foremost citizens whose motive was none other than the interest of the farmers.

Your attention is called to the statement of Wayne Denamore, noted authority on agricultural matters, as follows, first of all farm work:

"General agriculture requires a flexibility of power such as is furnished by horses. The economy of home-raised power and fuel is indisputable. Fertility and maintenance of the farm and self perpetuation double the interest returned to the farmer on his investment in the horse.

We conclude, Mr. Farmer, that we have taken very great care in selecting good blood and breeding in order to get the bone substance and conformation. Your attention has been called to this. It is a well known fact that the importance of good brood mares is the foundation of our future horse power. It is decided economy to the farmer, especially in commercializing the production of high grade mules which at present is in such great demand that prices range from $300 to $500 per head.

Each of these mares will do an ordinary year's work plus the production of a big, heavy-boned mule colt. This stock will be sold under an ABSOLUTE GUARANTEE and must be just as represented, and to be paid for in one year under contract.

The Sale Will Start

Saturday, June 12th, at 1 p. m.

Under the supervision of Col. J. O. Hereford, auctioneer. This stock will be sold regardless of price and regardless of weather conditions. Further announcements will be made at the sale. You will find it profitable and instructive and you are cordially invited to attend the sale.

O. B. PICKETT, Clerk.

ANNOUNCEMENT

Having always been a Tulsa booster and having been president of the the Fred Shaw Motor corporation, a company distributing the Tulsa car, a home town product, in the central and southern states for the past five months, I wish to announce to my acquaintances in Tulsa and adjacent territory, that the Fred Shaw Motor corporation has opened a retail branch at 116-118 S. Boulder, where the Tulsa car will be sold, and where a complete stock of accessories and repairs for all makes of automobiles will be carried in stock.

A complete service station and repair shop under the direction of experienced mechanics secured from the Tulsa factory, is at the disposal of Tulsa car owners and the public.

All Tulsa car owners are invited to bring their cars to our new place of business for a thorough inspection, which will be made at no charge, and where free service will be given to those cars still covered by the dealer's guarantee, regardless of from whom the cars were purchased.

We have storage for 40 cars and will be glad to take that number for regular monthly storage.

FRED SHAW

Fred Shaw Motor Corporation

Retail Sales Branch

116-118 South Boulder.

The Tulsa Auto Manufacturing company and the Fred Shaw Motor corporation employ one hundred and twenty-one persons in the production and sales of the Tulsa car. These employees and their families, are to a great extent, dependent for their living on the good will expressed by Tulsa citizens and car buyers.